

THIS FORM CAN BE USED TO LODGE A COMPLAINT WITH AN AIRLINE AND/OR A NATIONAL ENFORCEMENT BODY.

Passenger rights in case of denied boarding, downgrading, cancellation or long delay of their flight under Regulation (EC) 261/2004

INSTRUCTIONS

- 1) Passengers who believe they have a valid complaint against an airline¹ regarding denied boarding, downgrading, cancellation or long delay to a given flight should first submit such a complaint to the airline operating the flight concerned. This form may be used for that purpose. Please keep a copy of this form for your records.
- 2) Should the airline fail to provide you with a reply within 6 weeks of receipt or, if you are not satisfied with their reply, this form (a copy of the original form sent to the airline may be used) should be sent to the national enforcement body² in the Member State³ where the incident took place.
- 3) If the incident took place at an airport of departure outside the EU, you may contact the national enforcement body in the Member State of flight destination.
- 4) This complaint form is to be used only for cases concerned with denied boarding incident, downgrading, cancellation, or long delay of a flight.
- 5) For any other complaint types such as baggage claims, flight schedule changes made more than 14 days in advance of your travel date or ticketing issues, these too should be submitted first to the airline concerned. Should you not receive a reply, or if you are not satisfied with the reply, the European Consumer Centres⁴ in any Member State of the EU can be contacted for further advice.
- 6) Please fill in the form in block capital letters.

Please note that the competent authorities of Member States cannot in general take binding decisions on airlines in respect of individual complaints. If you are still not satisfied with the airline's response, even following the answer from the competent authority, you will have to pursue the matter in Court or through alternative dispute resolution.

¹ "Regulation 261/2004 applies to all flights operated by any airline from any EU airport and flights to an EU airport operated by any EU airline"
